

Having been an active auxiliary to the Romish Church in its attempt to control the civil affairs of this nation, and finding itself repudiated by the great mass of people, the Ohio Eagle is now endeavoring to elicit in its favor the sympathies of the Methodist denomination of Protestants by representing the American Party as being antagonistic to the creed of that Church.—The Eagle doubtless thinks that by appealing to the religious prejudices of the people it will in this way be able to effect the overthrow of the American Party. To do which, it has crossed the holy portals of God's sanctuary and engaged in the nefarious work of sowing seeds of discord among his disciples all for the miserable object of securing permanency to partisan organization.

The Eagle can pander to the whims of bigotry & prejudice in the Romish Church, it can excite the baser passions of foreigners who have and can have no sympathies with us as a nation; but it has woefully misused the character and standard of public intelligence when it attempts to operate upon the credulity of members of the Methodist Church or any other Protestant denomination—it will find that what it has taken for religious bigotry and credulity, is an enlightened public and christian understanding, made doubly keen through the instrumentality of an open Bible.

What inconsistency to stand before the public, and with one hand invite to your standard the members of the Romish Church who deny to mankind the right to read, think and act without first consulting the Bishops and Priests of the Church, and with the other hand Protestantism to your standard whose very foundation is an open Bible and whose chief prop is an enlightened people. What other motives than thirst for political aggrandizement could induce you to rally to your rescue elements so directly antagonistic.

The objects and aims of Protestantism is to enlighten and christianize the world—it seeks to control the spiritual affairs of mankind—its regulations and laws conform to the true construction of Republican Government. It deals with the spiritual and not with the temporal affairs of mankind. On the other hand what are the objects and aims of the Romish Church?—Is whole history, from its earliest existence up to the present time, exhibits one continuous scene of usurpation and wrong—wherever it has supreme control "darkness covers the earth and gross darkness the people." Its chief object is to control temporal affairs, and to do this it must smother the intelligence and independence of its followers—it closes the lids of the Bible, it openly and boldly denounces the institutions of our country, and excites in the breasts of its deluded followers feelings of prejudice against the government and people of the United States. Go search out the lowest sinks of ignorance and vice to be found in the land, and there behold the followers of this self-styled "true Church of God," go to your pauper houses and State prisons and there behold the pretensions of this Church, and then tell us whether the minds smothered by the oppressions of the Church of Rome are prepared to act the part of citizens of a free land. If "on the intelligence and virtue of the people" depend the perpetuity of our institutions, what would ask, will become of this nation when Romanism gains the ascendancy?

"What is it Composed of?"

"What is the organization of Sag Nichts composed of?" This question has been frequently asked. We would reply that it is composed of broken down politicians, foreigners and Catholics. In this city it is led by the repudiated members of the "Old Red Lodge Clique"—men who, in times past, in co-operation with the Ohio Eagle robbed the county Treasury of hundreds and thousands of dollars. One of its leaders recently exhibited traits of dishonesty in the Auditor's office, one of them proved himself totally incompetent to discharge the duties of the County Clerk's office, one was recently defeated in a Congressional Convention, one has for years past held the office of Superintendent of the Hocking Valley Canal, one is a Catholic and recently discontinued this paper because it claimed the right of free discussion, and denied to Popery the power to break down the Common Schools of the country, one is now a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the people of the State, one was recently defeated for county surveyor and is now traveling over the county trying to pass himself off as a Know Nothing, three are editors of the Ohio Eagle, whose characters are so well known to our readers that they need no comment.

Such, reader, is the material of which this organization of Sag Nichts is composed. What do you think of it?

The Scioto Gazette propounds a delicate question. We have studiously avoided all allusion to the subject. In regard to the correctness of the report the Gazette need entertain no doubt. "It was, but is no more!" The Gazette will readily "perceive our situation."

The Legislature of Indiana has adjourned without electing a U. S. Senator, or any State Officers—and the Governor has no power to fill such vacancies.

What has become of Johnes?

The papers of the Slave Democracy are silent about the letters of the President's agent so opportunely brought to light by the editor of the Bucyrus Journal. The Statesman says it was a "hoax" played off by somebody on the Bucyrus editor. Others, almost the entire press, say nothing.—The latter is doubtless the most prudent course, and has the merit too of being in accordance with the injunctions of the Sag Nichts, or "Sag Nichts," the name by which the secret band is called in the "rural districts" where there are not enough Germans to make Sag Nichts a popular designation—for, says Mr. Johnes, "our name takes well with the Dutch."

We have called Mr. Johnes the President's agent. The testimony of the agent himself, made in the confidence of political brotherhood, ought to be conclusive. Hear what he says: "Gen. Pierce will think I am a devilish queer clerk, and am doing up his business in beautiful style by getting into such a confounded scrape."

This then is the kind of service the clerks in the public offices are put to! Let the tax payers remember that. Here is an agent of the Government traveling the country organizing secret political societies, his expenses being defrayed out of the public treasury! In the name of the President he offers bribes of political preferment. Take the following specimen: "Your county has great reputation with the powers that be at Washington, and of course your name as well as the names of some other leaders of your county stand high on the list of the President's favor. If we can push the Sag Nichts association through and keep strong enough to carry the next Presidential election, you may all expect to obtain a reward fully equivalent to the majority your county will give; you know the terms; 1,000 majority will entitle your headman to a chairmanship, with other offices for other leaders. The Postoffice of course you get."

Let the American citizen, who loves his country and believes in the necessity of securing a pure administration of our Republican Government, bear these things in mind. We can laugh at Know Nothings and Sag Nichts when sustained by individual enterprise, but when the Government enters the field for the organization of secret societies to sustain its power, we may know that corruption lies at the bottom, and if not exposed and checked no man's lease of his political franchise is safe for a twelve-month.—O. S. Journal.

RAILROAD SUSPENSION BRIDGE AT NIAGARA.—The locomotive Pluto, with a passenger car attached, crossed and re-crossed the Suspension Bridge on Friday afternoon. The car was filled to overflowing with invited guests from Hamilton, and other places in Canada, who had come down in a special train. Among them were C. G. Bridges, Managing Director of the Great Western Railroad; J. Morris, General Agent; and several prominent citizens of Hamilton.

The bridge is very substantial and steady, sinking less than three inches at the centre as the train passed over. It is estimated that it is capable of sustaining 12,000 tons, and was built under the direction of Chief Engineer, John E. Robbling.

It is not yet completed so as to connect with the track on the American side.

THE CHANDED POSTION OF ENGLAND.—We extract the following from the Paris correspondence of the New York Commercial Advertiser:

"In this state of things it is not surprising to hear ministers avow that England has fallen to a secondary position among the nations of Europe, in physical force, or to hear from the nation a universal cry of despair and of revenge against the unfortunate ministry that happened to be in power at the moment. The natural fear now is, that France, the Bonaparte dynasty being in power, may take advantage of these circumstances, and although the alliance will be maintained, a time is coming when she will be liberated, and then will revive all the old prejudices and hatred which only lie dormant, but are not extinct. These developments of England's weakness only serve to powerfully consolidate and strengthen Napoleon's power; and it may well be feared that at a proper moment this power will be put in operation against England, and the cause of liberty as well. The exultation in France, taken in connection with the fact that France is physically stronger at this moment than she ever was, while England is avowedly weak, furnishes an omen which does not carry with it a bright future."

NEWS GLEANINGS.

The colored people of Pittsburgh appear determined to let no slaves be taken through that city. A gentleman and his wife, accompanied by a colored woman, arrived at the City Hotel on Monday, and, anticipating some trouble, the proprietors were informed that she was free. The colored people, suspecting her to be a slave, determined to run her off, and as she was leaving the breakfast table on Wednesday morning, she was surrounded by the colored waiters, carried off and secreted.—She was set at liberty and brought back to her employer, as soon as those who took her away were satisfied she was not a slave.

Among the important bills introduced at the close of the Thirty-Third Congress, was a bill to repeal the Neutrality Laws, by Senator Brown of Mississippi. He proposed to repeal such sections of the law as restrained our citizens from giving aid and comfort to the people of Cuba. Ex-Governor Brown said that the Spanish in Cuba have insulted our flag, imprisoned our people, searched our ships, pillaged our mails, and yet Government does not move. Under these circumstances he is for letting slip the dogs of war in the shape of filibusters. The bill don't pass.

The story told in the New York Herald about an autograph letter from the Emperor of Russia to Mr. Pierce is a lunacy, and nothing more. No such letter has been received by the President through any channel whatever. It is a canard, without a feather of truth in it. So says the special correspondent of the New York Tribune.

An Ogdensburg dispatch of the 9th, says two persons of that city, formerly stage drivers, have been committed by the United States commissioners in default of $2,000 bail in each case, charged with robbery of the mail.

A young woman attempted to commit suicide by jumping off the suspension bridge at Wheeling, one day last week.—She kindly gave notice of her intention to two ladies that were passing, who seized her and prevented the accomplishment of her purpose.

The Cincinnati Gazette says the total expenditures of the city for the year ending March 1, 1855, have been $580,468.37.—The Fire Department, including heavy outlay for building and real estate, has been $133,590.40. The benefit of Mr. Greenwood's services has been incalculable.

Congress has restored to Miss. Hinton her private property, which became forfeit to the Government by the delinquencies of her husband.

Kissane in the Police Gazette.

A late number of this journal gives a sketch of the life of this notorious character, and an enumeration of the various crimes with which he stands charged. Of his parentage, it says:

Kissane was born in Ireland, and is the descendant of one of the noblest families in that country. His father held several very lucrative positions under the Government. When William was yet a child, his parents emigrated to Canada. His father, we understand, was obliged to fly the country on account of some sedition case in which his honor as well as his life probably was endangered. Arrived in Canada, a farm was purchased, where after a few years the old man died. William, while yet a boy, grew tired of farming, and after scraping forty dollars together set out for the United States, and reached Cincinnati, where what was left of the forty dollars was invested by our hero to learn the art of book-keeping.

With reference to his recent arrest it gives the following account, which differs from that heretofore published: "It has been said that Kissane was detected passing counterfeit money, but this is not so. His detection was caused by passing altered bills, by which means he made eleven hundred out of ten hundred bills. That is, he would take ten twenty dollar bills of the same bank and make them eleven, by means of a combination. It is done thus: Suppose we take, for example, a bill and mark it in this form:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

We take the first bill up, and part No. 1 is torn off and laid aside. The bill passes, of course, as many bills are torn by accident. The second bill is torn up to No. 2 and part No. 1 is pasted on, and this bill also passes. The third bill is torn off at No. 3, and No. 1 and 2, which is one piece, is then stuck on. By this means eleven bills are made of ten, the eleven bill having just as much and no more torn off of it than the first bill had. It is not our business to explain the combination, but our business to explain the character of this character than a counterfeit. The secret formerly was confined to Kissane, Finlay and Cole; others are now in possession of it, and if there is any doubt, at once refuse them.

At the close of the sermon a committee was appointed to wait on the parties that sold the deceased the liquor, and ascertain upon what terms they would sell and quit the business.
